

Legal Reference Librarian, University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law

Sacramento Campus & Law Library, Sacramento, CA

California's first chartered university of higher education, University of the Pacific is an independent, residential, comprehensive university centrally located in northern California.

Established more than 93 years ago, the University of Pacific, McGeorge School of Law is an internationally recognized leader in the field of legal education with alumni practicing in all 50 states and in 58 countries. Its location in the capital city of California, Sacramento, has shaped the school's focus on state and local government law, International law, water law, and advocacy.

As the hub for research, scholarship and late-night studying for students, faculty and the legal community alike, the library is the heart of the campus. With a robust research collection that is partnered with the University Libraries system, McGeorge has grown into a unique living and learning environment of national stature with full accreditation by the ABA, AALS and the Order of the Coif.

POSITION PURPOSE

Provides reference assistance, instructional and outreach services, and assists with support of instructional technology and digital repository.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

- Provides reference services. Participates in the Library liaison program with faculty members. Provides library resource and legal bibliographic instruction by means of class presentations, informal workshops, small group seminars, and individualized instruction.
- Provides instructional and outreach services.
- Supports Head of Library Technology and Instruction Support with digital initiatives, including digital repository, and instructional technology.

- Participates in professional activities and continuing education. Serves on library, law school, and university committees as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS

Masters Degree in Library or Information Science from ALA-accredited school, and J.D. degree from accredited ABA law school (or J.D./LL.B. degree from Canadian law school or other foreign law degree at J.D. level combined with a U.S. LL.M degree from an accredited ABA law school)

FOR FULL DETAILS AND TO APPLY PLEASE VISIT:

<https://pacific.peopleadmin.com/postings/10356>