

Research and Digital Initiatives Librarian

The UC Davis Mabie Law Library is recruiting for a full-time career Research and Digital Initiatives Librarian.

The Mabie Law Library is an integral part of the UC Davis School of Law, and provides services that support the teaching, research, and scholarship of its students and faculty. The Library's collection and staff are housed in King Hall on the Davis campus. The Library has access to more than 10,000 databases which are provided through its library licenses, campus, and UC-wide license agreements.

Position Duties summarized:

Collaborate with research and reference librarians to plan and deliver library services to law students, faculty and other patrons of the Law Library. Work as part of the research team to plan, support and deliver library services in support of the scholarship, teaching and research mission of the School of Law. Help develop programs to deliver resources to students, faculty and others through library orientation, reference desk assistance, training programs, and overall library functions. Assist with preparing training materials and teaching legal research applications to students in various clinics and doctrinal classes, as well as RA's, journal students, externs, interns, etc. Participate in regularly taught legal research courses such as Advanced Legal Research etc.

Work in collaboration with Technical Services department to create and maintain standards for digital materials. Develop efficient methods for creating and preserving long term digital library content. Revise and establish procedures for archival collection description and expansion of archival materials. Explore new methods of accessing and creating library metadata for use in a variety of discovery platforms. Implement advances in metadata and cataloguing to maximize intellectual access to collection information, etc.

Qualifications:

ABA-accredited JD and ALA-accredited MLS degree.

The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age or protected veteran status.

Recruitment Period

Open date: January 25th, 2018

Next review date: February 28th, 2018

Apply by this date to ensure full consideration by the committee.

Final date: March 31st, 2018

Applications will continue to be accepted until this date, but those received after the review date will only be considered if the position has not yet been filled.

For full application requirements, details, and online submission please apply here:

<https://recruit.ucdavis.edu/apply/JPF02029>